

| Learning Objectives

) Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.

| perspective.

Writing Prompt: Although there is no scientific proof that ghosts exist, the ghosts are real. Ghost stories have been told for years during the celebration normally only told from the narrator's point of view. Tell your own ghost story

| Evaluation

Use a rubric of your choice to evaluate the narrative writing pieces. The rubric should rate language conventions, content, and organization. Here is a link to a